HUNTINGTON MUSEUM OF ART CELEBRATES FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF MUSEUM STORE SUNDAY ON NOV. 28 TO ENCOURAGE SHOPPING LOCAL
#museumstoresunday

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. – On Sunday, November 28, 2021, for the fifth consecutive year, more than 1,650 museum stores representing all 50 states and the District of Columbia, 24 countries, and five continents will offer inspired shopping at museums and cultural institutions during Museum Store Sunday. The Museum Store at the Huntington Museum of Art will participate in this signature annual initiative and join museum stores worldwide by offering gifts for the holiday season—with all purchases supporting its parent institution.

“The Museum Store at the Huntington Museum of Art will be offering a 20 percent discount on all merchandise, including consignment, in the Museum Store to everyone for this special shopping day,” said Larry Mullett II, HMA Director of Guest & Protection Services. “This is your day to get that piece of estate jewelry that you have been wanting or that piece of Cameo Glass by Kelsey Murphy. We have a variety of apparel available in addition to toys that would make great stocking stuffers. All Red Line/Dot merchandise is 75 percent off, and you will also get the 20 percent Museum Store Sunday Sale discount as well.”

Shoppers can look forward to Museum Store Sunday as the global annual day to Be a Patron – and shop conscientiously and support museum stores and their missions worldwide. While there is only one Museum Store Sunday each year, everyone is encouraged to Be a Patron of museums and museum stores all year round.
